

"I oppose taking a vote that leads to more media consolidation. We cannot have an informed public when all we hear and see is from a narrow source which may be subject to political pressure in order to maintain their huge market control. To avoid this "one size fits all" concept we must have diversified ownership. On June 2nd, I urge you to encourage competition and diverse opinions by not consolidating ownership of media markets."